COWGILL HEADS THE COMMITTEE

KANSAS CITY MAN UNANIMOUSLY ELECTED BY DEMOCRATS.

DICKEY AND LAMM IN ROW OVER CHAIRMAN

Many Conferences Held This Morning Among the Republicans, But Failed to Settle the Dispute.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Jefferson City, Aug. 22.—Judge James Cowgill of Kansas City was unanimously elected chairman of the Democratic state committee, which met at 12 o'clock today for the purpose of organizing.

Republicans in a Deadlock.

Conferences all morning failed to settle the dispute among the Republicans as to who will head the state committee. Judge Lamm, Republican candidate for governor, is insisting that "Jep" Howe of St. Louis be named while W. S. Dickey, Republican candidate for United States senator, is backing T. W. Hukriede for re-election as chairman.

The Republican committee was deadlock and no choice had been made for chairman at this time.

Howe opposed Dickey for the senatorship. Hukriede opposed Lamm for the governorship. This adds to the embarrassment of the situation confronting the G. O. P. party leaders. Efforts to compromise by naming Hukriede chairman and making Howe chairman of the executive committee have been rejected flatly.

Friends of Judge Lamm even declared he would resign the nomination of the committee did not name a man he desired as chairman, but no one appeared inclined to take the suggestion seriously, particularly as it did not come from Lamm himself. The fight, however, may result in two separate compang -..unamiset-PH- cmf cmfp campaign committees—one to run the Dickey campaign, one the Lamm fight.

BURGLAR ESCAPES WITH $2

Unknown Man Enters House of Henry Wright by Cutting Through Screen —Takes Money Only.

An unknown man entered the residence of Henry Wright, on North Main street, about 3:30 Monday morning. He gained entrance by cutting through the back screen door and lifting the latch. The house door was open.

Mrs. Wright was awakened by a flashlight which was thrown around on the walls, but was frightened and did not make a noise. The burglar searched Mr. Wright's clothes and took about $2. He was evidently after money, for, although he looked all over the house, Mrs. Wright missed nothing else.

WM. PHARES AND WALTER HEAD REPUBLICAN COMMITTEEMEN

105 BALLOTS REQUIRED

Two Nominees Leave for Jefferson City to Attend Meeting of G. O. P. There.

William F. Phares of Maryville and Walter W. Head of St. Joseph were selected as state committeemen from this district by the Republican Congressional Committee last night in St. Joseph, after 105 ballots had resulted in the continuance of the deadlock between Head and John Albus of St. Joseph.

The election was brought about when the five members of the committee from Buchanan county, which had voted for Albus on every ballot, walked out of the room. The five members of the committee from the outside counties remained and perfected an organization and proceeded with selecting Phares and Head.

Both Phares and Head left for Jefferson City last night to be in attendance at the meeting of the Republican State Committee there today. John Albus is also in attendance at that meeting and will contest the election of Phares and Head.

J. S. Shinabarger, W. R. Tilson, H. F. Leet and James M. Evans, who attended the meeting yesterday in St. Joseph, returned to Maryville today at noon.

FIRST VISIT IN THE COUNTRY

Prof. and Mrs. Schuler to Have Three Little Girls of St. Joseph as Their Guests at Camp at Bigelow.

Three little girls of St. Joseph left that city today for Big lake, near Bigelow, to spend a week with Prof. and Mrs. H. B. Schuler of this city, who are spending their vacation there. The St. Joseph Gazette had the following about it:

Three little girls—Evelyn Gardner, and Stella and Sarah Dailey—residing at 2604 South Thirteenth street, will leave today on the first visit to the country they have ever known. They will spend a week at Big lake, near Bigelow, Mo., as the guests of Prof. and Mrs. H. B. Schuler. Prof. Schuler is a member of the faculty of the Maryville State Normal, and he and Mrs. Schuler have been spending the month in a cottage at Big lake.

Several days ago they wrote to the Gazette, offering to entertain three St. Joseph children for a week if this paper would find a trio of kiddies who might enjoy such a treat. It was to be a real treat, Prof. Schuler said, for he would pay the car fare of the little guests and give them "all the comforts of an outing" while they remained at the Schuler cottage.

It was no trouble to find children willing—yea, eager—to accept the kind hospitality of the normal school instructor. The task was found in the "sifting process. It was finally decided that two little sisters, Stella and Sarah Dailey, aged 13 and 9 years, and their cousin, Evelyn Gardner, aged 11, would be particularly benefited by the outing. They will leave the union depot over the Burlington today at noon for Fortescue, Mo., where they will be met by Prof. Schuler, who will take them to his cottage. The St. Joseph children are to remain until next Sunday, which marks the close of the stay of the Schulers at Big lake. The brief lives of the three children have held few pleasurable experiences, although crowded with sad deprivation and suffering, and since their selection for the trip to Big lake they have been living in an ecstacy of blissful anticipation.

FISH FRY AT LAST

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL HOLD CELEBRATION FRIDAY.

PROGRAM IS PREPARED

Committees Busy Selling Tickets, Providing for Transportation and For Dinner Supplies.

Friday is the day set for the long-looked-for Commercial club fish fry, which is to be held at Herron pasture, near the Lee bridge, east of Maryville, beginning at 4 o'clock, and the committee guarantees that the stunt will be pulled off this time sure. In fact, the committee that has charge of the arrangements, Albert Kuchs, Kyle Phares and W. C. Pearson, have selected two fishing crews who will procure the main portion of the big feed—the fish. The men will go to the Nodaway and to the 102 rivers on Thursday, and intend to spend the day getting the required amount of fish.

Will Be Cooked to a Turn.

As for the cooking of the fish—Henry Wilson colored) and two able assistants will be on hand to see that the sunfish, the catfish and the perch are done to a turn, and the committee will furnish all of the other supplies that go to make up a good meal.

The committee in charge of selling the tickets will start out today to sell the tags necessary to make this the most successful Commercial club event of the year. The ticket, which costs 50 cents, will entitle the buyer to transportation to the grounds, to a share in the fish dinner and to participation in the games and contests, either an an on-looker or as an active member.

Games and Contests.

Among the amusements will be a ball game between two teams of picked men, Arch Frank acting as captain of one called the "Panthers" and F. P. Reuillard leading the other, which is named "Wild Cats."

A horseshoe pitching contest will also be one of the features, the captains of this sport being Judge W. C. Ellison and Captain Charles Hyslop. The picked teams chosen for the tug of war will be led to victory by Charles Buhler and Peter Dietz.

A pie-eating contest with Dr. F. M. Ryan as judge will be staged as a mirth producer. Besides there will be an old swimmin' hole for the pleasure of swimmers.

CAR OF PAPER RECEIVED

The Democrat-Forum Gets Their New Print Paper at Double the Price Paid for Paper Last March.

The Democrat-Forum received yesterady a carload of print paper, being the second car we have had this year. In the shipment was 36,931 pounds of paper and 638 reams, or 319,000 sheets.

This car of paper costs us just double what we paid for the last car of paper received about six months ago. Owing to this tremendous increase in the cost of paper and other materials entering into the production of newspapers, we have been compelled to increase our subscription rate to the Daily Democrat-Forum sent by mail to subscribers outside of Nodaway county to $3.00 a year. This advance will go into effect September 1.

SCHOOL LUNCH NEXT TO BE RESPONSIBLE

THE BUSY MOTHER CONFRONTED WITH NEW PROBLEM.

PRESIDENT PLACES BURDEN OF STRIKE ON R. R. HEADS.

SHOULD BE WELL CHOSEN

Care Should be Taken to Select Desirable Foods—Here is List of Proper Lunches.

With the opening of school only a few weeks away the busy mother is again soon to be confronted with the problem of her children's school lunch. To give her a few suggestions the agricultural extension bureau of the University of Missouri has just issued a bulletin, "The Cold School Lunch."

A growing child at school must have plenty of good, wholesome food that is easily digested, says the bulletin. The less unnecessary tax put upon his digestive organs the more energy he will have to spare for mental work. The lnch should be carefully selected, keeping these general points in mind: (1) The child should have plenty of protein to keep him growing and this should be gotten from eggs and milk rather than much meat, (2) ripe, fresh or cooked fruits should be a part of every lunch, (3) fats should be supplied in the form of whole milk, butter on sandwiches and egg yolks, (4) fried foods are hard to digest and should not form part of the lunch, (5) a few pieces of good, home-made candy may be given, and an occasional portion of well made pie, (6) add vegetables to the lunch whenever possible.

Some wholesome lunches suggested by the bulletin are:

1. One chicken sandwich, one jam sandwich, one apple, one glass of milk, one small piece of cake (two graham or plain crackers and two apples for recesses).

2. Brown bread and butter sandwich, cottage cheese sandwich, celery, one orange, nut anl raisin cookies.

3. Ham sandwich, bread and butter sandwich, fudge sandwich, apple sauce and one glass of lemonade.

Another important thing to consider is the lunch container. The lunch should never be wrapped in newspapers, but put in tin pails, fiber boxes, baskets, or the ideal but rather expensive thermos lunch box. Waxed paper, plain white paper napkins, seal tight jars or thermos bottle to carry semi-liquid foods and drinks are important in packing the lunch.

THIRD STOLEN CAR FOUND

Auto, Claimed by Charles J. Hall of Nebraska, Found at Elmo.

Another stolen car was found at Elmo and is claimed by Charles J. Hall of Nebraska. Arthur Alexander had purchased this car from George Hamilton, a brother of Elmer Hamilton.

Hall identified his car last evening at Elmo and filed a replevin suit today in circuit court against Alexander for the recovery of his car.

Thi smakes the third stolen car that has been found in the Elmo neighborhood. Hall claims his car was stolen at Omaha about the same time that F. W. Bourck of Grant, Ia., missed his. Bourck found his car at Elmo in the possession of Orville Halisa, who said he purchased the car from Elmer Hamilton. Bourck filed a replevin suit also against Halisa.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

London, Aug. 22.—The British troops are gradually encircling Thiepval, the only German stronghold on the Somme front that has withstood the battering of the allies' offensive. In Posieres and the Miraumont section progress has been made. A statement says that the British are within a thousand yards of Thiepval, which has been under heavy fire for more than six weeks. The British admiralty announces that it is believed that a German battleship was torpedoed and sunk Saturday.

Excessive Artillery Activity.

Paris, Aug. 22.—Following the artillery lull of Monday the French again attacked last night south of the Somme, capturing elements of the German trench at Estres, the war office announces. North of the river the French attacked at Clery, making further progress. There was excessive artillery activity all along the front with the French shelling the German trenches and the Germans dropping curtains of fire in an effort to forestall the French infantry attacks.

No Change in East.

Petrograd, Aug. 22.—There is no change of position on the western front of the Russian theater of war, the officials announce today. In both Armenia and Persia the Russians are advancing, driving the Turks before them. West of Lake Van the whole company of the Seventh Turkish regiment has been captured.

Russ Land at Saloniki.

THE COMMERCIAL ORGANIZATION A FORCE, NOT A MARK.

There are many who think that a commercial body is an organization maintained by the community as a whole, and the impression is quite prevalent that the membership of a commercial body should undertake anything that needs to be done, and should finance the undertaking out of its own pocket.

The commercial organization in its essence is a body of men who conceive it to be their duty to contribute to the welfare of the community through organization; to do something other than to pay taxes and obey the ordinary laws and ordinances. These men are striving as well as they may through the best means which they are able to obtain to do the public things which do not fall within the province of local city or county government. They do a large service when they finance this work, and put their time into it, as many of them do, and their organization should be immune from the complaint of those who voluntarily devote neither their money nor a portion of their time to community welfare.

An impression is quite general that members of a commercial body as such should assume financial responsibility for or contribute largely to public benefactions and all matters of social or civic enterprise. It is a fact, a fact in every community, that individual members of the big commercial organizations are the leaders in all of these things, but they are leaders because they find it in their hearts to be so, and not because they are members of a commercial body. There is hardly another organization in any community which does not offer its members more in the way of private and personal gain and direct return than the commercial organization. Other organizations keep their hold upon their membership largely by entertaining them or appealing to them from the standpoint of personal gain. It takes a broad minded, unselfish, liberal individual to catch the spirit of community building, and to be willing to give to it.

The commercial organization owes nothing to the community, save doing the work which it assumes, and "keeping" itself a constructive and actual force. It should be called to account only by its own members, and then only when the work and support which they give it match the work and support of those who are most active in it. Constructive suggestions it should have, at all times, and from anybody, and it welcomes them.—The Kansas Citian.

BIRD STICKS TO ITS NEST

Mother Stays by Young Ones Through Terrific Bombardments by British.

London, Aug. 22.—A British staff officer writes:

"A blackbird's nest with three young birds in it was found in the ruins of a village which had been captured by us some days previous.

"This particular village is situated practically right on the old German front line, and thus the old bird must have sat on its nest during the whole of the preliminary bombardment and the subsequent terrific fighting. Everything around the nest was smashed to atoms."

Famous Screen Sermon at the Fern.

"Traffic in Souls," the wonderful photo drama of the day will be shown at the Fern theater. This picture is the only picture of its kind that ever passed the Kansas state board of censorship. "Traffic in Souls" is the only photo play in the production of which the New York police commissioners co-operated. At its completion the following quotation shows just what a powerful weapon this unusual drama is: If every girl could see this play, if every mother could see this play, if every father could see this play, there would be a lessening in number of the thousands of girls and women who disappear each year, girls who are still living but in the grip of the white slave traffic, which is worse than death.

G. B. Tracy, secretary of the committee of the suspension of vice in St. Louis, said: "'Traffic in Souls' is the greatest moral lesson I have ever seen in any form. It is what all girls should see warning them against men who show undue interest in them upon a first meeting." There are 600 people in this stupendous production, 700 scenes.

"Traffic in Souls," in order to prove a telling warning, shows the actual lairs and dens of iniquity of the white slavers. This masterpiece of reality ran one solid year in New York. Positively no children under 16 admitted, unless accompanied by their parents.

APPEAL TO FARMER

FROM THE FARMERS' MARKETING COMMITTEE OF THE STATE

COUNTY SHOULD ORGANIZE

Farmers Should Stand Together and Form a County Organization—A. Craig, Committee Chairman.

In response to the demand of the Farmers' Market Conference which was participated in by representative farmers from all over the state in Columbia last January, we, the Executive Committee of the said Conference, make the following appeal to the farmers of Missouri:

Farmers Must Stand Together.

We believe that the farmers of this Nation are confronted by the greatest crisis in the history of American Agriculture at this hour and that the time has come when we must organize and stand together as never before if we would save ourselves and our children in the years to come from conditions little better than those of Agricultural bondage.

On the one hand the manufacturers of all kinds of merchandise compel the farmer to pay a price for their wares equal to the production cost together with a substantial profit, while upon the other hand when the farmer goes to market with his hogs, cattle, sheep, corn or wheat he is compelled to accept a price fixed by the Packers Combine and the dealers in grain futures who are in absolute control of the live stock and grain markets of the Nation and from whose manipulation under existing conditions there is no escape. In other words, the farmer is compelled to buy in a market governed by the law of supply and demand and to sell in a market in which an arbitrary price is placed upon the fruits of his year's sweat and toil—a price which utterly ignores the cost of production and in which condition of affairs is found the answer to the tremendous increase in farm mortgages recorded in the last Federal Census, the increase in land tenancy and the reason why thousands of boys and girls are being driven from the farm to the already over-crowded cities.

The great manufacturing industries of the Nation find themselves in the midst of unprecedented prosperity at this time, and New York rather than London promises to become the future financial center of the world. Every laboring man who is willing to work finds ready employment and through the power of Organized Labor sets a generous price upon his services—and although the American farmer furnished $1,600,000,000 worth of exports during the fiscal year of 1911 and 1915 as against $900,000,000 on behalf of our allied manufacturing industries, he is not permitted to share in the prosperity which abounds on every hand, but, on the contrary, he is compelled to contend against one of the worst live stock markets in the history of the American farm last winter. Within the last 30 days the Packers have again arbitrarily reduced the price of beef cattle $1.50 per cwt.—and this condition of affairs, which has existed for the last 25 years, is becoming more and more intolerable. That last winter's prices for live stock were the result of deliberate manipulation is exemplified by the fact that, although our meat exports in 1915 were $100,000,000 greater than in 1914, the prices for cattle and hogs were much lower and entailed a loss of untold millions of dollars upon farmers throughout the country.

Time for Organization.

That the hour has come when we must organize for our mutual well-being, and thus place ourselves in position where, like the manufacturer, the merchant, the banker and Organized Labor, we can protect ourselves and demand what it costs to produce the great staples of the American farm together with a reasonable profit—upon this depends the future of every farm home in the land and the future of our children who will have to contend against these unbearable conditions when we shall have passed from the scene of action. Upon every hand it is admitted that the farmer could be the mightiest force in the land if he would co-operate and stand shoulder to shoulder with his neighbor—and at last we have reached a time when self-preservation offers no other alternative—when organization, co-operation and real farm leadership are the only forces which can rescue our farm homes from the blight which rests upon them at this time, which can provide the pleasures for our loved ones to which they are justly entitled and preserve to the Nation a profitable American Agriculture which is the true source of its well-being and permanent prosperity.

A County Farm Mass Meeting.

To this end we hereby appeal to the farmers of every county in Missouri to begin immediate plans for the holding of a two-days County Farmers' Mass Meeting as soon as the necessary arrangements can be perfected and upon this occasion the undersigned committee will actively assist in the organization of a strong County Farmers' Association through which the foundation of a Farm Club in as nearly as possible every School District in your county may be actively taken in hand. The College of Agriculture and the State Board of Agriculture will doubtless co-operate as far as possible by furnishing a number of able speakers upon agricultural subjects, while other men familiar with this great new movement will deal directly with the question of Farm Organization—and thus this occasion should be made the greatest two days farmers' "Love Feast" and coming together of farmers that has ever assembled in the history of your county. Therefore, our good brother, when you have finished reading this appeal, call up your neighbors and call their attention to it; then see that 15 or 20 of the leading farmers of your township are called together for a conference and notify the editor of the newspaper in which this article appears whether you are willing to get behind a big County Farmers' Mass Meeting. As soon as he receives a report from a majority of the townships in your county a meeting of the leading farmers from the various townships should be arranged and at this time definite plans can be made. No dates for the County Mass Meeting should be named, however, until you have advised with W. H. Thomson, Columbia, Secretary of the undersigned Committee—as the dates for the different county meetings will have to be so arranged as to enable the various speakers to reach from one meeting to another with the least expense and inconvenience. No meetings should be planned earlier than the early part of September and from that time on it is our purpose to hold from three to five county meetings every week until the coming of winter weather.

To Form a State Association.

As soon as 25 or 30 counties have been organized in this manner a powerful Missouri Farmers' Association will be formed and thus for the first time in the history of our great commonwealth the farmers of Missouri will be in position to take in hand the great questions which confront them at this time and upon the solution of which depends our happiness in the years to come. That the farmers of your county cannot afford to be indifferent toward this appeal will be plainly manifest when we tell you that arrangements have already been made to furnish wholesale prices on carload shipments of corn, bran, ship stuff, oats, coal, salt and fertilizers to the members of every Farm Club in the State and that at this time the farmers of the central Western states are being canvassed for carload orders of apples at prices which will save thousands of dollars to the farmers of the state as well as enable these western farmers to buy more cheaply than after the apples have passed through the hands of various jobbers and commission firms.

In conclusion the members of the undersigned committee are plain Missouri farmers like those to whom this appeal is addressed and at our own expense we are willing to leave our homes and travel hundreds of miles in order that we might contribute our mite toward this great new movement upon which depends the paying off of the mortgages which hang like a dark cloud over thousands of Missouri farm homes at this hour. That you will not turn a deaf ear to our plea—that you will get together with your neighbors at once and plan a great County Mass Meeting which shall literally set your county on fire with the spirit of farmer organization and co-operation—that you will help us to write here in Missouri a new Declaration of Independence on behalf of American Agriculture and a "square deal" for the fruits of the farmers' sweat and toil—this is our coucluding wish and we trust every farmer in the state may take it profoundly to heart.

Twenty-Eight Days in Each Month—One Extra Day at the Start of Each Year.

"Why not adopt a new calendar?" asks the Rev. H. P. Hames, a Spokane minister.

And to show that it is not an idle question, Mr. Hames has figured it out carefully, and proposes that on January 1, 1922, the world (by common consent of the inhabitants) adopt the one he has made up. His unique proposal calls for 13 months of 28 days each; the unlucky one to be termed "Holiday" and to be sandwiched in between June and July. That would accommodate 364 days of the year. The extra or 365th day is not counted in any month, but precdes the first day of January as New Year's day.

He also has arranged to take care of the extra day on leap year. He would have this fall in the new month of Holiday, between Saturday, Holiday 14th, and Sunday, Holiday 16th, and he proposes to call it Leap Year day and treat it just as New Year's is treated. Under the Hames perpetual calendar system each month would begin on Sunday and end on Saturday.

Some of the advantages which he ascribes to the system are:

Each month has the same number of days—like a school month.

The same date in each month falls on the same day of the week.

A printed civil calendar for each month will not be necessary, as the days of each month are identical with those of the first month.

The calendar is good for all time to come, and, like Bill Nye's Railway Guide, "will be just as good two years ago as it was next spring."

Holidays, anniversaries, etc., are easily fixed or transferred.

It will facilitate business calculations. A month will mean 28 and not 29, 30 or 31 days. Wages by the week, fortnight or month are readily adjusted without even referring to the calendar, which is easily committed to memory.

This calendar could, by general consent, be adopted Sunday, January 1st, 1922, without disturbing in the least the present calendar.—The Daily Missourian.

Miss Nora Ellerman of Clyde came to Maryville Saturday evening to attend the wedding of her friend, Miss Elizabeth Wilmes to Hubert Zech. The young couple will make their home in Illinois.

Policy Holders Attention:

Notices of assessment number 16 have been sent out by the State Farmers Insurance Company of Cameron, Missouri.

We desire to advise our customers, or persons holding insurance in this Company that their assessments may be paid at this bank, regardless of any particular place of payment named in the notices sent out.

We wish to make this perfectly clear for the reason that last year quite a number of policy holders were notified, by parties other than the officers of the Company, to the effect that their assessments were delinquent, when, in fact, they had been paid either by check mailed direct to the Company, or at some place other than was specified in the notices.

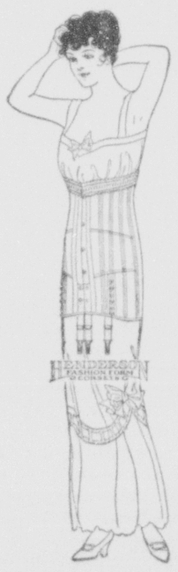
"The Longer I Wear Them The Better I Like Them"



This is what we were told by one of our most particular customers recently in reference to Henderson Corsets.

We are not surprised, as we frequently hear words of commendation regarding these splendid corsets.

They are thoroughly good in every particular and are so conscientiously constructed that their life is beyond that of the ordinary corset.

Among the many styles that we have recently placed in stock and which we offer discriminating buyers, is Henderson Corsets, 696; a particularly satisfactory model for those of average to rather stout proportions; has elastic lacings in the skirt so that same is self-adjusting to every figure requirement; has a medium bust; handsomely trimmed with embroidery and has a graduated clasp which effectively supports the figure: three pairs strong hose supporters; made of excellent quality coutil of double thickness over abdomen which gives added strength and wear to the corset. Price $2.00. We most cordially recommend this model.

Live Stock Market.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Aug. 21.—The advance of 25 to 40 cents on most grades of cattle last week, coupled with continued lack of rain, increased the offerings to 30,000 cattle today, best run of the season. The Panhandle country contributed heavily, some of the cattle from that section driven in by dew weather, and Kansas sent a liberal number. Prices on killing steers were mostly steady, plain grassers 10c lower, stockers and feeders steady and active, cows steady to weak Most of the Panhandle country got enough rain Sunday to put water in the lakes.

Beef steers—Some big weight horned natives brought $10.65, numerous lots of natives at $10.25 to $10.60, plain short fed steers $9.50 and upwards. Grass steers again had the support of feeder buyers, so notable last week, and sales of the good ones ranged from $8 to $8.90, including steers to feeder buyers at $8.50. Medium and plain grassers weighing 900 to 1,200 pounds sold at $6.50 to $7.75, best straight Kansas grazed Texas steers brought up this spring $8.25. In the quarantine division 28 cars arrived, mostly low grade mixed lots, a few straight droves of steers weighing up to 850 pounds around $6.50. Butcher cattle worked a little higher last week, some heavy grass cows today 10c, car load lots up to $7. Medium cows sell at $5.25 to $6.25, canners $4.50.

Stockers and feeders—Stocker and feeder trade last week was upwards of 25,000 cattle, biggest week of the season. The Panhandle country sent in a large number today, and best yearlings sold at $7.50 to $8, plainer stockers down to $6.75. A good many men from east of us were here looking for steers for feeding and paid $7.25 to $8.50 for steers weighing 900 to 1,250 pounds, some common feeders around $6.75.

Hogs—The supply fell short of the estimate, actual count showing 8,500 head. Some sales were up 25c, top $10.70, bulk $10.15 to $10.65. A feature was the sale of 20 car loads of hogs consigned by Bob Miller, Mayetta, Kan., which sold at $10.65 to $10.70. These were part of a drove of 5,000 stock hogs bought in Idaho last spring. Part of the reason for the recent big advance is that some of the packers were caught short, but legitimate trade demands are such as to insure a stable market somewhere near present levels for some time to come.

Sheep and lambs—Short supplies and a strong demand are keeping the local market at a high range as compared with other markets. Receipts today were 4,200 head, market 10 to 15c higher, Utah lambs at $11.25, natives $10.75, Colorado fat ewes $7.35. Feeding lambs bring very high prices, $9.25 to $9.75, and breeding ewes sell high, though a quarter lower than a week ago, ranging from $7.50 to $9 for young ewes, feeders $5.50 to $6.50.

BATHED PIGS TWICE A DAY.

At That, Neighbors of New York Man Complained to Health Board.

New York.—Spotless town has been found. It is North Bergen, N. J.

Neighbors of Louis Tracassa complained to the board of health that he did not keep his five little pigs in "clean and sanitary condition."

Tracassa appeared before the board to defend himself. With an aggrieved tone he told of his sanitary precautions.

"I give those pigs a bath every morning," he said, "and my wife bathes them every night. What more to you want? Should I get up in the middle of the night to wash them again?"

"How do you bathe them?" he was asked.

"In a tub," said Tracassa.

The board of health took the case under advisement.

PULLED STUMPS TO MUSIC.

Brass Bands Played to Lighten Labor In Canadian Army Camp.

Camp Borden, Canada.—Never before was stumping done to the accompaniment of martial music. Four battalions were engaged the other day in uprooting old pine stumps while their brass bands played in the midst to lighten the labor and to allay any pain old Mother Earth might feel in the process of extraction.

About a million stumps have been removed in the camp area. As the ground is sandy, the roots are easily pulled up with a stumping machine. They are then gathered together in heaps and set on fire. The sight of these bonfires on the plain at night in the vicinity of the camp is reminiscent of Homer's Iliad.

FINED $50 FOR KILLING BEAR.

Pennsylvania Hunter Was Also Forced to Surrender Cubs.

Warren, Pa.—It cost James Nolan of Morrisons, near here, $50 and costs for killing a mother bear out of season.

While Nolan was out fishing near his home he discovered a female bear with two small cubs wandering through the forest. He quickly returned to his home and, getting his rifle, went back to the forest and killed the bear with one shot.

After killing the bear Nolan took the cubs to his home, where he was feeding them from a milk bottle, when L. K. Hogarth, state game warden, placed him under arrest. Hogarth took charge of the cubs.

Will Linville and Will Strickler of Skidmore were in Maryville on business today.

WANTS CITY TO PAY FOR SHOES WORN OUT IN PRISON

Says He'll Sue Unless He Gets 75 Cents.

St. Louis.—Edward Lane, a negro, went to the Municipal Courts building for the avowed purpose of forcing the city to pay him for a pair of shoes which he wore out while serving a 100 day sentence in the workhouse on a peace disturbance charge.

At the police court parole office Lane was told there was no fund from which he could be reimbursed for his shoes.

"Them shoes was worth $5, but I'll take 75 cents and call it square," said Lane. "If I don't get it I'm going to sue the city. I won't hire no cheap lawyer, neither. I'll hire Senator Hoke Smith of Alabama." Smith is a senator from Georgia.

Lane left the building saying he would see Judge Hogan, who fined him. The judge said the negro did not visit him.

"If he does," he said, "I'll give him the money and save the city from a lawsuit."

ADVANCE PRICE OF YOUR FAVORITE BOOK

Will Have to Pay From 10 to 25 Cents More For Current Publications.

New York.—Book lovers will have to pay from 10 to 25 cents more for current publications. Publishers and retailers already have increased the price. Books formerly selling from 50 cents to $1 now are rated at 10 cents higher. Those in the past priced from $1 to $2 are sold at an increase of 25 cents each.

The publishers claim that there has been an increase in the price of paper, leather, cloth and ink amounting to from 50 to 100 per cent during the past twelve months, and it is impossible to produce books at old prices.

The consensus of opinion among them is that under the present serious conditions a further increase of from 10 to 20 per cent may be necessary. They say their only hope is in the ending of the European war. It is claimed there is also a shortage of chemicals which must be obtained from Europe for the manufacture of their particular grade of paper. The surplus supply of this class of material is exhausted and the publishers will have to depend upon a new supply.

TROOPS MAKE ADOBE HUTS.

With Dog Tents, United States Soldiers Now Have Combination Houses.

San Antonio, Tex.—Combination adobe and dog tent huts now shelter a large proportion of the American troops in Mexico, according to General Tasker H. Bliss, assistant chief of staff of the United States army, who returned here recently from a trip to General Pershing's headquarters.

General Bliss said that on finding themselves due to stay in Mexico for some time thousands of soldiers constructed adobe walls about three feet high and U shaped. On top they pitched their dog tents, previously their only shelter, thus gaining a roomier and more comfortable lodging. Beds have been supplied by stuffing sacks with grass.

WIDOW 34 YEARS, PENSIONED.

Mexican Veteran Died Before Law Was Passed Providing Pay.

Buffalo.—Thirty-four years after the death of her husband, who fought in the Mexican war, Mrs. Laura M. Hawley of Lockport was notified by the local pension agency that she would receive back pension from 1887, the year the law granting pensions to soldiers of the Mexican war was passed. She will receive $3,200 in a lump sum and $12 a month for the remainder of her life.

Mrs. Hawley was the second wife of Hawley, who died five years before the pension law was enacted. She did not learn until five years ago, she said, that she was entitled to a pension.

WHITE MAN IS NEGRO'S HEIR.

Prominent College Athlete, Adopted Son, Gets About $100,000.

Baltimore.—The adopted white son of James L. Hitchens, negro, to whom an estate of about $100,000 is left, is a football and basketball player. He was a student of the Maryland Agricultural college for a year and of the Baltimore City college for three years.

The youth's adopted name is James L. Hitchens, Jr., but his real name is James L. Lindemann. His mother died when he was four years old. His father was an actor. Young Hitchens, now twenty-one years old, is married.

LOSES INHERITANCE BY DRINK

Heir Dies a Pauper Rather Than Forsake John Barleycorn.

Ashtabula, O.—Peter Walstrom, sixty, heir to $30,000, died a pauper.

Heart disease, said to have been brought on by overdrinking, was assigned as the cause of death.

Eighteen or twenty years ago his father, living in Stockholm, Sweden, died and bequeathed his son $30,000 with the understanding that it was to be held in trust for him until he gave up drinking. The liquor habit, however, had too close a hold, and he never got the money.

SEES END TO POLICE SCRAP

Attorney General Barker Says Ten Days Will Settle the St. Joseph Affair.

The St. Joseph police commission tangle will be unraveled within ten days, John T. Barker, attorney general, said last night in Kansas City, on his way to Jefferson City from a conference with the newly appointed police commissioners in St. Joseph.

"After investigating the situation and realizing that Dr. U. G. Crandell and Joseph I. McDonald intended to stand pat in the occupancy of their positions," Mr. Barker said: "I filed three quo warranto suits in the St. Joseph circuit court. One against Dr. Crandell, one against Joseph I. McDonald and a third against James A. Clouser, the chief of police, who was discharged by the new board. These suits will come to trial before Judge Thomas B. Allen of the Buchanan county circuit court within the next four or five days. Each of the boards, the old and new, will present their claims, and whether the old board will stand or the appointees of Acting Governor Painter be approved is in the hands of Judge Allen.

"St. Joseph now has two police systems, the old one headed by James A. Clouser, the chief of police discharged by the new board, and the second one headed by Thomas Moore, a deputy sheriff and former police detective, appointee of the new board. This will be the situation until the court takes action on the case.

"An appeal to the supreme court will not benefit the old commissioners, for if the case is decided for the state they will be ousted and the new board will be in charge. They can only regain their positions by a reversal of the decision by the supreme court."
